JENAM-97

PREFACE

This issue includes the contributions presented to the Joint European and National Astronomical Meeting held in Thessaloniki, Greece, 2–5 July 1997 (JENAM-97) – the 6th European and 3rd Hellenic Astronomical Society Conference titled: New Trends in Astronomy and Astrophysics.

As the Organizing Committee decided not to publish all the Conference material jointly, every section and individual authors were free to decide where to publish the conveners of the correspondent contributions.

The present issue includes the 16 papers based on presentations to JENAM-97, sent to our journal for publication and approved by the referees.
